From the editor

Dear chess friends

The coronavirus pandemic has left half of the world's population in quarantine, and as a result, social and personal relationships have been affected by the virus. With the arrival of the coronavirus, few people thought that this uninvited guest would be so enduring and destructive. With the outbreak of the virus in China and later in other countries, the consequences have gradually appeared in various sectors, and work restrictions and the closure of many centers around the world have caused irreparable damage to the economy.

Clubs and sports venues were among the first to be closed due to the outbreak of the coronavirus, and are likely to be the last places to reopen. Most sports competitions have been virtually suspended, which have created many problems for athletes.

Fortunately, with the help of the internet, the popular chess was able to continue its online competitions, and the Unity Chess Club, headed by Fide master Pedram Atoufi, he became the standard-bearer for these competitions in the chess world. With a team of several dozen professionals and attracting representatives from all around the world, the Unity has continued its path with strength, and with the aim of keeping chess players around the world active and expanding chess, 'Sunday With Unity' have become the best online competition in the world.

Sixteen weeks after the start of the tournament, there was a growing need for a specialized weekly magazine to cover the news and details of the tournament, and after much deliberation, we decided to release it this week. In this issue, in addition to a brief report of the first 15 weeks, we will cover the full report of the 16th week. We hope you enjoy the product. Please give us your helpful comments.

Parham Maghsoodloo is an Iranian grandmaster, twice National Champion and the World Junior Champion 2018. He has played many of Unity Chess Tournaments and won the first place of the 10th week. Here is a short interview of Unity Chess Magazine with him:

Dear Parham, thank you for giving us your time and participating in this interview. How did you learn chess and how did you become a grandmaster?

Thank you and the big chess and unity family. I was about 10 years old when my father learned me chess and I was very enthusiastic. At the age of 15, I became the Grand Master in the Stars Cup with the latest GM norm.

You are a strong grandmaster and well-known for blitz skills as well. What are the pros and cons of playing blitz games?

It is very useful and instructive if we set the right time in our daily schedule for the blitz and do not cause low concentration and false speed in the standard section.

What is your opinion about Sundays With Unity tournaments? How can it become more useful and attractive?

The field is very good. The chess community is in serious need of continuous competition especially in this situation of the world, and I sincerely thank all those who work hard for this competition.

Young players enjoy playing in the Arena system. What do you think about this system? Do you want our tournament to be held in the Arena system or Swiss one?

In my opinion, the Arena system is more of an entertainment aspect, but the Swiss system that we always deal with is much more serious and accurate.

How much time do you spend on chess during the current pandemic, and how is it divided?

I work with chess programs and a full schedule of every possible thing in chess almost all the time and I think I will be one of the most prepared chess players in the Standard after finishing Corona.

Who is your favorite chess player in history? What about the current players?

The best is definitely Kramnik, and I'm interested in Nakamura and Magnus.

Please name some of your favorite chess books? And tell us why?

Biography and best games of Kramnik, My System Aron Nimzowitch, Think like a grandmaster, Play like a grandmaster (Alexander Kotov books), and all Jacob Aagaard books.

What do you think about the future of chess?

Hard to say, maybe life is beautiful.
