Individual ties shall be resolved in the following order:

- a) Direct Encounter
- b) Greater number of wins (forfeits counted)
- c) Buchholz Cut 1
- d) Buchholz
- e) Sonneborn-Berger

9. Fair Play

- 9.1. By signing in the tournament participants confirm to have read and accepted these regulations and specially the Fair Play Rules of the online platform.
- 9.2. Participants have no right to appeal about pairings made during the Championship.
- 9.3. Asian Chess Federation have no responsibility for technical problems arising for players during the games.
- 9.4. By registering in the Championship, players will not have the right to claim any financial compensation or redress related to the Championship.
- 9.5. Respect of the fair-play rules and fair use of all the participant is expected. The fair-play measures are based on resources of the hosting Internet platform (hereinafter referred to as Tornelo) and follow International Chess Federation's (FIDE) fair-play guidelines. The anti-cheating algorithm used is to be approved by the chief arbiter.
- 9.6. Special Anti-cheating and fair-play regulations
 - 9.6.1 AUSF in consultation with Tornelo establish a fair-play panel (hereinafter referred to as FPP). The FPP consists of the following fair-play experts: AUSF representative, ACF Fair-Play Commission members, the fair-play experts of Tornelo, computer scientists and statisticians, chess grandmasters.
 - 9.6.2 FPP works to ensure fair results for each game. FPP may apply any measures that it considers necessary and sufficient in order to ensure fair-play conditions during the tournament.
 - 9.6.3 All the players required to be observed via a video conference call by FIDE arbiters/international arbiters for the duration of the tournament. Observation shall include webcam and other requirements per Tornelo and FIDE arbiter standards.

- The full and detailed list of necessary technical requirements is to be communicated to all the players 7 days before the start of 1st round.
- 9.6.4 Based upon the results of the anti-cheating algorithm and/or other evidence deemed sufficient by FPP to establish a cheating incident, FPP has the right to disqualify any player for a suspected fair-play violation during the course of or a tournament. The disqualified player may be declared lost in all the games he/she played
- 9.6.5 In addition, FPP has the right to ban any disqualified player for suspected fair-play violation.
- 9.6.6 Any ban imposed on a player restricts him/her from taking further part in the event regardless of the stage when a violation is discovered by Tornelo.
- 9.6.7 Neither ACF, nor Tornelo claims that the determination of a suspected fair-play violation is proof of actual cheating or an admission of guilt of by the disqualified or the banned player. Such a determination shall not affect the ordinary status of the player for over-the-board competitions within the jurisdiction of FIDE or its members, unless FPP decides in the case of a clear or gross violation, or repeated violations, to refer the matter to the FIDE Ethics and Disciplinary Commission which may exclude the player from all official chess participation for a period up to 15 years.
- 9.6.8 By entering into the tournament each player accepts the above-mentioned Fair-Play measures as a condition of entry in a voluntary sports event and agrees that his or her participation takes place subject to these Fair-Play measures.
- 9.7. Rules that apply in the case of technical problems:
- 9.7.1 If disconnection is determined to be caused by factors under the player's control and the disconnection occurs mid-game, the player's clock will continue to run as normal until time has expired. Arbiters will be in touch with the player via digital communication methods and will attempt to guide them through reconnection. In the event the player is not able to reconnect during the game in which they have disconnected, the Arbiters will continue their efforts until the next round has begun. Chief Arbiter may, in his sole determination, decide to postpone the round until a later time.
- 9.7.2 If the fault is a server error or other error not in the player's control (natural disaster, widespread power outage, etc.), Arbiters will recreate the current position and will reset clocks to the proper time from before the outage or error took place. Upon doing so, the game will continue as normal. In the event the error is not resolved within 1 hour, the Chief Arbiter may, at his sole determination, decide to postpone the round until a later time.
- 9.7.3 The Chief Arbiter may decide otherwise in exceptional circumstances.
- 9.7.4 If any extraordinary cases should arise, the Chief Arbiter will make an appropriate ruling, always in accordance with the letter and spirit of the FIDE Laws of Chess.
- 9.8. All appeals for a particular round must be made by the HOD within ten (10) minutes after the round. Appeal fee of $50 shall be paid by Paypal to asianchessfederation@yahoo.com. Otherwise the appeal will not be addressed by the Appeal Committee. The appeal fee will be returned by Paypal if the protest is upheld.

10. Awards

All the participants will be awarded with digital Diploma of Participation.

The top eight Men and top eight Women shall be awarded with digital individual Diploma of Honor.

The top eight teams in the AUCC for Men and Women shall be awarded with digital Diploma of Honor for four players and one official.

Special award will be given to the best Oceania individuals and teams.
